

ADVOCATING AT THE IEP MEETING- STRATEGIES FOR SUCCESS WHAT EVERY PARENT NEEDS TO KNOW

Thursday, October 24, 2024, 10:00 am – 11:30 am

DESCRIPTION: The goal of this workshop is to empower parents and caregivers to be more effective advocates for their children and get better educational outcomes. Attendees will understand why the Federal law is the key and will learn new skills and strategies to better prepare them for their child’s next IEP meeting and working with their child’s school. It is as simple as learning your ABC’s and doing your homework.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Parents, family members, caregivers, therapists, teachers, and other professionals who want to enhance the lives of children, teenagers, and young adults. Although our primary focus is for individuals with autism, we welcome all who strive to achieve the same goals.

LANGUAGE: English (Spanish and Mandarin Interpretation Provided)
